

The banner features a dark blue background on the right side with the firm's name in white serif font. The left side shows a blurred image of mechanical gears in shades of blue and gold.

Vilau & Mitel

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Communication & IT

The Communication & IT Romanian market has lately known a remarkable development. We have been deeply involved in its evolution, representing various global and local clients in this field.

We have deep and diverse Communication & IT experience on the Romanian market, representing global and local clients in the communication and information technology field. We advise in all areas of communication, broadcasting, environment, e-commerce, internet providing, being a highly active sector from the merger & acquisition perspective.

Our telecommunications practice genuinely spans the full range of significant legal issues arising in today's telecommunications industry: ongoing regulatory compliance through day-to-day advice, interconnection and access charge arrangements, assisting in the review and sale of networks, advising on the various specialized agreements.

Our firm offers legal advice on:

- data protection
- software development and licensing
- licenses and authorizations
- technology transfer