

Vilau & Mitel

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Dispute Resolution & Litigation

Vilau & Mitel has built a solid reputation in civil and commercial litigation as well as arbitration disputes arising from Romanian and international civil and commercial law.

We offer our clients an array of services in litigation, arbitration and alternative dispute resolution. We are responsive to clients' needs to seek other alternative means of dispute resolution, including arbitration and mediation. Our work includes assessment of the legal risks and liabilities and implementation of the right strategy.

We assist and represent clients in all procedural phases related to disputes, from lower courts to the Supreme Court of Justice, as well as in the Constitutional Court, the Romanian Court of International Commercial Arbitration and the European Court of Human Rights.

We have worked so far for almost all types of disputes, covering a broad range of commercial and civil disputes, including aviation & aerospace, banking, capital markets, judicial reorganization and liquidation, bankruptcy and insolvency, property, intellectual property and information technology, antitrust, environmental, planning and regulatory, fraud, insurance and reinsurance, product liability, employment matters professional liability and professional negligence.